The Daily Bulletin.

MONDAY, NOV. 20, 1882.

Just before a western-bound train left the Union depot yesterday morning, a masher with his little grip-sack slid around to a woman standing near the ticket-office, and remarked:

"Excuse me, but can I be of any assistance in purchasing your ticket?"

"No sir?" was the short reply.

"Beg pardon, but I shall be glad to see that your trunk is properly checked," he continued.

"It has been checked, sir."

"Yes—ahem—you go west, I presume?"

"I do."

"Going as far as Chicago?"

"Yes sir."

"Ah—yes—to Chicago. I also take the train for Chicago. Beg your pardon, but didn't I meet you in Buffalo last fall?"

"No, sir!"

"Ah! Then it was in Syracuse?"

"No, sir!"

"No? I wonder where I have seen you before?"

"You saw me enter the depot about five minutes ago with my husband, I presume?"

"Your husband?"

"Yes, sir, and if you'll only stand around here three minutes longer you'll make the fifth fellow of your kind that he has turned over to the coroner this month."

Some mashers would have made a run for it, but this didn't. He went off on the gallop and as he wanted to go light, he left his grip sack and a ton of brash behind him. —Detroit Free Press.
